Delegate Wilcox Impassionate Address to Hawaiians.

At the opening of the Home Rule Territorial Convention yesterday, Delegate R. W. Wilcox delivered the following address:

"Gentlemen of the Convention, I give you greeting. In beginning what I have to say to you today I would have you remember that we have become a part of the United States. We are now a part of that great country. We did not consent to the interment of our identity. Our monarchical form of government was overthrown, our Queen overthrown, our rights taken away and our country wrested from us.

"We tried to prevent such a state of affairs and yet it came. We were an independent government, yet we did not remain such. Our independence was ended by the very sugar planters and the 'missionaries' who are crying out in fright today. We all tried to prevent annexation to the United States. Societies were founded among the Hawaiians such as the Kalaaina and Aloha Aina societies and men were sent to Washington to work against annexation, but these sugar planters, these 'missionaries' and sons of 'missionaries' were working against us. Then came the Spanish-American war, the United States hurried the matter along and we were soon a part of that great country.

Framing Organic Act.

"Then came the framing of the Organic Act and the agents of the 'missionary' government were sent to Washington to work against the Hawaiians. What was it they did? They tried to shut us out of any say in the government of the land which their forefathers had owned. In other words they wanted what was left of the vast possessions they had taken from the Hawaiians.

"I was sent as a delegate of the people to Washington to fight for their rights. I was helped along in a financial way by Prince Jonah Kalaianaoale who is here present with us today, by R. N. Boyd, who himself donated $400 and by a lot of those whom I see before me today.

"I had $900 on which to go while the agents of the 'missionaries' had thousands of dollars behind them to help their antagonistic work along. I was a stranger there and I soon found that the Organic Act for Hawaii was all 'cut and dried' and that there was nothing left to do but to pass it as a whole in Congress. W. O. Smith and A. S. Hartwell were on the spot before me and were working tooth and nail to shut out the native Hawaiians from the right of franchise.

For Disfranchisement.

"What did they do? They recommended a property qualification, knowing well the condition of poverty of the natives. I was asked by members of Congress what I should like done in the matter of qualification, and I said I would rather see an educational qualification imposed, knowing full well of course that the Hawaiians could hold their own with the very best.

"What happened? My advice was followed, and today we have the franchise and no man is so poor that he cannot vote. That was the work of God, who took our side against our enemies.

"The very same people today are trying the very same thing. They are doing their best to get us out of the way in order that they may run things according to their own ideas. Why, what is all this talk about the last Legislature. It is nothing in the world but an attempt to discredit the Hawaiians as a whole so that Congress may be
